Updated July 2021

Welcome Letter

Let us be one of the first to welcome you to Wabash County, Indiana!

We have a lot to celebrate. From being the first electrically lighted city in the world, to being named one of Indiana's Stellar Communities in 2014 to winning the Small Business Revolution sponsored by Deluxe® in 2016 (check it out on Hulu)... we know that others are recognizing what our thousands of residents and annual visitors already know – Wabash County is an awesome place to be.

We have the amenities of a large city but boast a low cost of living in safe and charming communities. Our historical downtowns are alive and thriving with retail, restaurants, entertainment and other service businesses. We have easy access to top notch healthcare and a variety of recreational and outdoor opportunities (including miles of trails). And, our school systems have high graduation rates and are among the best in the state in innovation.

If you are looking for family friendly things to do then look towards the arts in Wabash County. The Honeywell center hosts highly acclaimed artists and shows year round. The Honeywell Foundation also oversees a variety of other public art and entertainment entities including the Charley Creek Gardens, the Honeywell House, Dr. James Ford Historic Home, 13-24 Drive In and the newly restored Eagles Theater.

Wabash County provides a wide variety of outdoor activities. Throughout the county there are miles of trails to hike and waterways to explore throughout our two rivers and two reservoirs providing opportunities to fish, swim, and boat in the area. The natural beauty does not stop there, there are waterfalls, gorges, rock formations, and mature forests throughout for exploring and wild life viewing.

Wabash County has a vibrant economy that is focused on local growth of businesses and residents. We are thrilled to have you in Wabash County. We are a community where opportunity abounds, and we would love to help you take advantage of it.

If you are looking for a new opportunity and want to be a part of our great Wabash County story, don't hesitate to contact us with any questions or to get connected. We look forward to meeting you! We look forward to you joining our county and helping us grow as a community!

YOU ARE HERE

Welcome to Wabash!

Known as the first electrically-lighted city in the world, Wabash has shone bright for centuries as a beacon of innovation in the heart of midwest America.

YP Member Kim smiles with her family at her home near Lagro

Welcome to Lagro!

Lagro, Indiana serves as an access point for kayaking, canoeing, fishing, and more on the Wabash River and at the Salamonie State Forest / Reservoir. You can also grab a bite to eat and a drink at 950 Speakeasy Bistro.

Fun Fact! - After intense competition between the towns of Wabash and Lagro for the designation as the County Seat, an election made Wabash the County Seat by a majority of one vote!

Welcome to Roann!

Roann's unofficial town slogan is "You'll only be a stranger once!" and it is certainly true. With a tree-lined restored and full downtown, covered bridge, and a historic mill, the small town could hardly be more quaint. It's also a great spot for river activities like fishing, kayaking and canoeing. Be sure to check out the famous Roann Covered Bridge Festival the weekend after Labor Day!

Welcome to LaFontaine!

Located on the south edge of Wabash County, LaFontaine is home to Grant Creek Farms - an interactive and market farm that hosts an annual Pumpkin Festival. Their annual Ashland Days Festival is also a celebration of LaFontaine's history every June.
