

Project Submission for the Leadership Development of Wabash County's Service Project Groups

Leadership Development Wabash County program is the premier leadership training program for our area that brings together a diverse group of existing and emerging community leaders to enables them to become resourceful stewards of the community. As part of the program, individuals are grouped together to complete a service project.

Wabash County nonprofit organizations are encouraged to submit a project to be considered for groups to work on over an 8 month period (Oct to May) to fulfill the group's 250 service hours requirement. Please fill out the form below for your project to be considered as an option for the groups from this class.
